

ORDINANCE NO. 18- 002

AN ORDINANCE TO REPEAL AND RECREATE SECTION 48.30 AND TO REPEAL 48.40
OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES OF THE TOWN OF WHEATLAND
RELATING TO REGULATION OF FIREWORKS SALES

The Town Board of the Town of Wheatland, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, hereby repeals and recreates Section 48.30 and repeals Section 48.40 of the Code of Ordinances of the Town of Wheatland relating to the regulation of fireworks sales to read as follows:

SECTION 48.30 Use and Possession.

48.31 Permit required. No person may possess or use fireworks without a seller's or user's permit from the Town of Wheatland obtained in accordance with the provisions of this section or from another governmental body.

48.32 Possessor's permit. A holder of a possessor's permit issued under this section is authorized to possess fireworks.

- (A) The form of the permit shall be determined by the Town of Wheatland and printed and provided to the Town by each seller intending to issue permits to recipients; each form shall have printed thereon the identity of the seller providing the same.
- (B) Forms shall be issued by the Town for the seller in multiples of one hundred (100) without limit and shall be signed and/or validated by a Town official in blank to the seller. The seller shall pay in advance for such forms at a fee as set by the Town Board.
- (C) The seller shall issue permits to purchasers of fireworks at a cost as set by the Town Board. Copies of each permit issued shall be maintained by the seller and provided periodically to the Town. Each permit shall expire at the end of the calendar year in which the permit is dated.

- (D) A possessor's permit does not allow use of fireworks within the Town of Wheatland.

SECTION 48.40 REPEALED.

Dated at Wheatland, Wisconsin, this 9th day of April, 2018.
