Report(s) Chief Denko stated it was an exceptionally quiet week with Country Thunder going on. He continues to monitor the burning ban and will post if it has to be re-established. 6614 is back in service with the welding complete. 6661, still waiting for the warranty work information. PFAF materials will be delivered to Delevan as a central point for disposal.

No Public Comments Jeff Butler questioned his concern of camping at the sales site on P and 50. The building inspector spoke to the owner and issued a warning. All activity will stop as of July 31st per the building inspector.

Chris Brown spoke representing the Great Twin Lakes Chamber of Commerce. He brought the current magazine to share and invited Wheatland to feel welcome to be a part of these endeavors. The chamber offers scholarships and will be able to offer help for our local events. There is a regular calendar of events that he invited us to email our information to be included.

ATV – we are waiting to hear from County Executive Samantha Kerkman regarding whether the county should update their ordinances first, or the town once Hwy O is officially open. Supervisor Madsen was not available with the Burlington update. Reports, Correspondence, Announcements. Roads, nothing new to report.

Chairman Butler reported Post and chains are complete at Koche Park and waiting for more chain to complete Oakwood Shores Park. Supervisor Wilson reported she has gotten some numbers for the speed signs but is still seeking input from Constable Santelli. She also reported that information concerning the pet, nuisance ordinance has been submitted to Attorney Davison, but we do not have a date to except anything back at this time.

Clerk – State we have some new address signs to be posted and they will be given to the county to install these.
