Reports

Fire Department – Fire Chief Denko gave the board members his plans moving forward for the replacement of 6614 since the MN truck fell through. They are reaching out to the display models at the fire conference in Ohio to have a base line to look at. While 6614 is still here new tires are going to be needed. The shed has been removed and the new base is getting ready for the new shed arriving on Thursday. There is an upcoming fire training for large storage battery fires.

Public Safety – Constable Santelli reported on his finding for possible shotgun and rifle. He will check out trade in on his current arms and bring the information back. His installation for Axon is April 11, 2024. Purchase will be on a future agenda.

Public Comments – None

Announcements.

Roads – several concerns have been brought up for the late salting with Saturday's ice.

Chairman Butler – nothing

Supervisor Madsen – Braking signs are up.

Supervisor Wilson – nothing

Clerk Deuster – gave a review of the February 20, 2024 election. Lions are here to present the $1400.00 check for the AED purchased for the Office.

Chairman Butler made a motion to adjourn at 6:30pm. Seconded by Supervisor Madsen. Motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted,
Donna Deuster, Clerk, Town of Wheatland.
